REGULAR REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS. THE GENEVA AWARD BILL AMENDED AND PASSED BY THE SENATE-THE UTAH CONTESTED ELEC-TION CASE DISCUSSED IN THE HOUSE-CONSID-ERATION OF THE PASSENGER STEAMBOAT LAW-RESOLUTIONS ON ARKANSAS AFFAIRS OFFERED

IN BOTH HOUSES. SENATE WASHINGTON, May 12, 1874. Mr. WRIGHT (Rep., Iowa), from the Committee on Finance, reported adversely on the bill for the E. Boyd Pendleton, Collector of Internal Revenne for the Vth District of Virginia, and it was indefi-

Mr. SCOTT (Rap., Penn.), from the Committee on Finance, reported an amendment to the new Finance bill, which proposes to strike out the following words in the second section of toe bill:

1 and second section of the bill see and second of its reserve, one-fourther of the coin received by it as interest on the bonds of the United Sates deposited as security for circulating notes or Gavernment deposits.

And to insert in licu thereof the following:

And each of soil associations shall keep and maintain, as part of its lawfur more remove, opediard of the security or circulating notes or bonds of the United States deposited as security for circulating notes or bonds of the United States deposited as security for circulating notes or bonds of the United States of the character such proposition of a in lor ben is of the United States of the character such proposition of a in lor ben is of the United States of the character such proposition of a in lor ben is of the United States of the character such proposition of security of the Treasure, and which may ancevard be held by seca association and considered as part of its reserve; three per cent out of the interest upon which bonds shall be reliabled by the secarater of the Treasure, and the whole amount of good that received shall be applied by him carlosterly to the payment or the size per cent fire-twenty bonds of the United States.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the Geneva ward bill, the pending question being on the amendments of Mr. Thurman to strike out the clause excluding of insurance companies.

r. SCHUEZ (1.0. Rep., ato.) san the desires of the inmen, with the money derived from the Genevalunal, should be marked by strict fairness, and every reshould be marked to carry out the spirit of that and it. The situation and policy of the United States early in the unfall be expected this country would be in marked in the great conflicts of the world and it and be to our interests to carry out the spirit of that carefully guard against any vague notions global bases or National indemnity.

CONKLAING (Rep., N. Y.) said the bill deserved from conductation than it was receiving. It inlinesty strongers in money, but matters beyond ment considerations were involved in it. The fating of the Geneva award concerned the digtile rep fation, and the discretion of the American for had become memorable throughout distribution of the Geneva award concerned the dignity, the reputation, and the discretion of the American mation. The affair had become memorable throughout the world. He did not consider the pending bill as wise as it neight have been made. It was not necessary to create a special court on this matter, to invent laws of its own, but it would be far better to go through the regular ladicial process, with the right of appeal. To consider the details of the bill he thought that the same rule that applied to insurance companies should be applied to all others. It, as claimed, the money belonged to the Treasury, no one had any claim upon it, underwriters or any one clse. It could be applied to building regulationess, to the relief of the widows or ermans of the late war, or to any purpose which stitled Congress. If the use of the money was not to follow the line marked by the arbitration, then Congress ought to listen to the callin of him whose vessel was burned or study by the Schemanloah prior to her departure from Melbourne. The Government presented the chains of these husurance companies at Geneva when it presented and vouched for its case.

Mr. FELLINGHUYSEN (Rep., N. J.), said that as he had voted for the bill in Committee, he esteemed it proper to state his reasons now for so doing. He regarded this claim as a materialione. The liability was to this Government on account of the English Government having violated the Neutrality laws. After quoting from various legal decisions in support of his argument, he said that in the distribution of his relief fund the money should go to indemnify those who lost by the war. If the insarance company lost by the war, let it be indemnified. The bill prohibited the merchant from making profit out of toe award, and expressly provided that he should have only indemnity. Why should the mentrance company have more than indemnity!

Mr. STOUKTON (Dem., N. J.) gave notice that he would oller an amendment to the 12th section, forbidding the allowance of claims where the party inju so as to provide that no claim shall be allowed in behalf of any claimant, unless such claimant shall show to the eatisfaction of the court that during the late rebellion the sum of his losses exceeded the sum of his gains. He said he saw no reason why fish should be made of one set of claimants and flesh of another. It was proposed to apply such a provision to an insurance company, and therefore it should be applied to all. He saw no crime in insurance a consent, and congress had no right to make such an immatural distinction. In distributing this fand, the butcher, the baker, and the candiestick maker should all stant on the same footing. He did not agree with his colleague that this was a national fund.

Mr. BOUTWELL (Rep., Mass.) said insurance was a distinct business as well as commerce, and if Congress compelled the maurance company to exhibit a balinger-sine of, upon the same principle if should compel the marchant to exhibit his and see if his prodits were augented to diminished. The incurrance companies might, mented of diminished.

American vessels destroyed in the War of 1812, and contended that the wrong committed by Great Britain has but against the matching and that the moderated that the papers had been so indorsed that against the individual citizen, but against the atlent and that was the principle which governed the rescentation of our case at Geneva; and, he said, no attent would or could with respect submit questions of relations or obligations to its own citizenste a foreign found.

Freinghosses, McCreery, Scott, Mr. SHERMAN (Rep., Ohio) offered an amendment that all claims provable or to be allowed under the act that le estimated and adjudged upon the basis of United States gold coin at the time of the loss.

At the request of several Senators it was agreed that this amendment should be debated, and that the agreement made yesterday should be laid aside for the present.

Mr. SHERMAN, in support of his amendment, said that these vessels were destroyed upon the high seas, and all their commercial relations were with the foreign marts of the world, where gold was the standard. The claims also hight his their claims at a contrasor while marts of the world, where gold was the standard. The claimants might hie their claims at a currency value, and they might then amount to $20,000,000 or $30,000,000. Mr. Howke (Rep., Wh.) said the amendment had better be acopted, though he did not think it would be possible for any court to award the value of a piece of property now, at its currency value ten years ago. However, the amendment would do no harm.

Mr. CONKLING (Rep. N. Y.) favored the amendment, and said the bill provided that luterest should be allowed to the claimant.

Mr. SHERMAN's amendment was agreed to—Yeas, 37; Nays, 21.

Nays, 21.
Mr. SHERMAN offered an amendment, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the judgments of the court created by the bill in com, and for the pur-pose of raising such coin, directing him to issue and sell bonds of a similar character to the new five per cent

Mr. EDMUNDS (Rep., Vt.) opposed the issue of any bonds. The Government had the money in the Treasury. It had been used in the cancelation of the public debt, and the Committee had supposed the judgments could be paid in currency out of the current revenues of the Government.

Mr. SHERMAN said one bond had been issued for the whole amount when the award was received, and the issue of smaller bonds now, as he proposed, would not increase the public debt any, but would take the place of the bond for the whole amount already issued. The mendment was agreed to.

Mr. CONKLUNG said the first ten sections of the bill Mr. CONKLING said the first ten sections of the bill related entirely to the organization of a special court, and provided necessary machinery for its management. He therefore moved to strike out those sections, and insert in fleu thereof the provisions of the House bill conferring jurisdiction upon a regular circuit court of the United States, to be selected by the Fresident within 65 days after the passage of the act. Mr. Conkling said into annual and arain, it allowed every claimant whose claim exceeded $5,000 the right of appeal to the highest judicial authority in the land, which right was denied by the bill creating a special court. He doubted the power of the President and Senate to secure five competent men for judices of this court, who would be willing to give up their business for 13 months for a compensation of $5,000 per annum.

Mr. EDMUNDs hoped the amendment would not be adopted, and said its effect would be to turn the whole thing into a grand "hotch potch."

The amendment was rejected—Yeas 23, Nays 34, as follows (Republicans in Roman, Democrats in Raics,

Mr. STEWART (Rep., Nev.) offered an amendment, that all expenses incurred by the United States in negotiating the award, and in the care and distribution of the same, shall be reimbursed before any private claim is paid. Agreed to—Yeas, 21: Navs, 29.

Mr. SARGENT offered an amendment providing that wages found to be due officers and seamen of all vessels shall be added to the claims for each vessel, and the owner thereof shall file a bond that he will pay over to such officers and seamen the same as if the voyage had been completed without interruption. Rejected.

Mr. MORRILL (Rep., Me.) submitted an amendment to Section It, so as to provide that the court shall examine all claims, including war premiums.

Mr. STOCKTON (Dem., N. J.) said there was an agree on the bill.

Mr. STOCKTON (Dem., N. J.) said there was an agreement made yesterday, but gentiemen had come in after the time fixed for the vote to-day and offered important amendments, as was the case with that offered by the gentleman from Nevada (Mr. Stewart), and agreed to. He thought it shameful that this Government should withhold one cent of money which it had recovered, and hereafter he (Mr. Stockton) would object to any agreement to close the debate if important amendments were to be brought in which could not be discussed without a violation of the agreement.

The amendment of Mr. Merrill (Rep., Mc.) was then rejected-Yeas, 21; Nays, 28.

The bill was then reported to the Senate, and the amendments made in Committee of the Whole were agreed to, with the exception of that of Mr. Thurman, to strike out the clause excluding the claims of insurance companies from being considered, which was rejected-Yeas, 21; Nays, 22.

Mr. THURMAN moved that the Senate adjourn. Rejected-Yeas, 3; Nays, 40.

Mr. CLAYTON (Rep., Ark.), by Thankington Constant

Mr. CLAYTON (Rep., Ark.), by unanimous consent, offered the following resolution:

Mr. CLAYTON submitted a resolution requesting the President of the United States to communicate to the Senate, if not incomparable with the public interest, all papers and correspondence relating to the troubles in the State of Arkanasas that may be in his possession.

Mr. EDMUNDS (Rep., V.) moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment of Mr. Thurman to strike out the clause excluding the olaims of insurance companies was rej

Mr. EDMUNDS having been first recognized, the vote was taken on his motion, and it was rejected—Yeas, 22; Nays, 23.

Mr. THURMAN moved to lay the bill on the table, which was lost by a vote of 13 Yeas to 36 Nays.

Mr. EDMUNDS called for the vote on Mr. Stewart's amendment to retain the expenses incurred by the Government in the negotiation, care, and distribution of the award, and it was rejected.

Mr. MORRILL (Rep., Me.) again submitted his amendment to include was premiums in the class of claims to be adjudicated.

Mr. THURMAN offered an amendment to that proposed by Mr. Morrill, as follows: "And all claims for losees of vessels destroyed by the Shenandoah before her departure from Melbourne." This was accepted by Mr. Morrill, and Mr. Thurman offered a further amendment to the one above given as follows: "And for all losses by any Confederate cruiser." This latter amendment was rejected, only two voting in the affirmative.

The question then recurred upon the amendment of Mr. Morrill, as modified by Mr. Thurman, and it was rejected—Yeas 9; Nays 34.

Mr. STOCKTON (Dem., N. J.) submitted an amendment, of which he gave notice this morning, compelling claimants to show to the satisfaction of the court that the loss exceeted the gains, and it was rejected.

Mr. HOWE (Rep., Wis.) submitted an amendment providing that the claim of any mutual insurance company might be allowed, and the proceeds apportioned among the members thereof. Rejected.

Mr. HAZELTON (Rep., Wis.), from the Committee on Elections, called up the Utah contested election case, the report being that Mr. Maxwell, the contestant, was not duly elected and that Mr. Cannon, the sitting member, was. He also offered as an amendment the following resolution :

Whereas, George R. Maxwell has presented a contest against the stitling member, George Q. Cannon, now occupying seas in the XLIHSt Congress as delegate for the Territors of Utah charging, among other things, that said Cannon is disqualified from holding, and is unworthy as acat on the floor of this flower for the reason that he was, at the date of his election, to wit, the 5th day of Angust, 1872, and prior thereto had been and still is, openly living and cohabiting with four women, as his wives under the prefended sanction of a system of polygamy, which he notoriously indorses, against the statute of the United States, approved Jaiy 1, 1862, which declares the same to use a felony, to the great scandar and disgrace of the people and the Government of the United States, and an abuse of the privilege of representation accorded to said Territory of Utal; and flast he has taken, and never renounced, an oath which is inconsistent with his dates and allegiance to the said Government of the United States, and with ms duties and anogames support of such charge has been brought to Warrear. The evidence in support of such charge has been brought to the official notice of the Committee on Elections; therefore. Resolved, That the Committee on Elections inquire into the said charge and report to the House as to the trainingness thereof, and recommend such action on the part of the House in the premises as shall charge and report to the thouse in the premises a shall seem meet and proper.

Mr. HARKISON (Rep., Tenn.) of the minority of the Committee, offered as an amendment a resolution that Mr. Cannon was duly elected and returned as delegate, and is entitled to the seat. He proceeded to address the House in support of his amendment.

Mr. SPEER (Dem., Penn.) argued against the adoption of Mr. Hazelton's amendment, on the ground that the question whether a man.had one or more wives was not recognized in the Constitution as affecting his elapibility to Congress. If Mr. Cannon were unworthy of a seat in the House, he should be expelled on the ground of his unfiness; but it was unfair to thrust that question before the House on the pretense of a contested election. It was a separate and distinct proposition, which should stand on its own merits. The Committee on Elections was already over whelmed with business, and should not be called upon to investigate and report upon scandals in Utah.

Mr. ROBINSON (Rep., Ohio) favored the resolution of

Mr. ROBINSON (Rep., Ohio) favored the resolution of the majority, and also Mr. Hazelton's amendment.

Mr. HAZELTON—I might resort the was duly qualified and entitled to occupy the seat. It would embarass the House to make the latter clause of the affirmation, and therefore he was opposed to the amendment offered by Mr. Harrison and in favor of those reported by the Committee. The amendment effered by himself he had feit under obligation to present to the House. He replied to Mr. Speer's argument, and defended his own proposition. The charge against the sitting delegate had been brought to the attention of the Committee, and evidence had been presented in support of it. He simply desired to take the judgment of the House as to whether the matter than the matter of the House as to whether the matter and impartial judge of the question?

Mr. SPEER—Does the gentleman regard himself as a fair and impartial judge of the question?

Mr. SPEER—The difference is that I do not want it sent to our Committee.

Mr. HAZELTON—I might resort very pertinently by asking my triend from Fennsylvania the same question.

Mr. POTTER (Dem., N. Y.) expressed the opinion that the House had no right to add to the qualification imposed by the Constitution, and he referred to the case of Mr. Potter of Virginia, who had been admitted to the seat notwithstanding the charges of disloyaity and that

The House then proceeded to vote on the various propositions. The resolutions declaring that Mr. Maxwell, the contestant, was not, and that Mr. Cannon, the sitting delegate, was, duly elected, were adopted without a division. The amendment officed by Mr. Harrison, declaring that Mr. Cannon was not only duly elected and returned but that he was entitled to the seat, was adopted—Yeas, 111; Nays, 75.

The question was then taken on Mr. Hazelton's resolution to refer the question of Mr. Cannon's polygamic practices to the Committee on Electious, and it was agreed to—Yeas, 127; Nays, 51.

THE PASSENGER STEAMBOAT LAW. The House then, at 2:20, went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Parker (Rep., Mo.) in the chair., on the bill to amend the Passenger Steamboat law.

The bill contains 73 sections, covering 83 printed pages. It is in part a reenactment of the act of Feb. 28, 1871, and governs the question of the heense or registry of vessels, protection against fire, the sort of carro they are prohibited from carrying, the number and kind of boats and life-preservers, &c., which they

It also provides for the stamping of the plates of boiler steel or from with letters and figures indicating their character and tensile strength, and makes regulations for fog stands, &c.

Mr. POTTER (Dem., N. V.), having moved to increase the salary of the Supervising Inspector-General provided for in the bill from $3.500 to $5.000, the amendment was stremously opposed by Mr. HOLMAN (Dom., Ind.), who, when the amendment came to be voted on, insisted that the question should not be decided by less than a quorum. As no quorum could be induced to vote, the roll had to be called, and the result was that 171 members answered. The tellers resumed their places, and the amendment was rejected—55 to 81.

After proceeding as far as the forty-second page of the bill the Committee rose.

Mr. POLAND (Rep., Vt.) asked leave to offer a resolution recting the disordered condition of public affairs in Arkansas, and providing for the appointment of a committee of five to send for persons and papers, or to go to Arkansas, to inquire whether there is in that State a condition of things which calls on the United States to exercise its warrant to guarantee to every State a republican form of government, to protect her from invasion or domestic violence.

Mr. POTTER (Dem., N. Y.) sugested the reference of the resolution to the Judicary Committee, which already had charge of the subject.

Mr. COX (Dem., N. Y.) objected to such reference of the resolution to the Judicary Committee never reports back anything referred to it.

Objection being made, the resolution was not received.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday, in the case of Anthony Oechs agt. Thomas Murphy, as Collector of this port, in which action was brought to recover an alleged excess of duty paid under protest on imported wine, the jury, by direction of the Court, found a vertlet for the defendant. The verdict is equivalent to say just that the value of the bottles in which wine is imported forms an essential element in determining the market value of the wine.

When the Fisk Pavement and Flagging

When the Fisk Payement and Flagging Company stopped work in this city a number of articles were sold to Charles E. Evans, to be used in Washington. Evans refused to pay the bill presented by the Company, claiming that the property was sold to him as the individual property of the Treasurer and that any action should be brought in the name of the Treasurer, against whom counter claims could be set up. Another ground of defense was that the purchase was conditional moon the delivery of the property at a certain time and place, and that this condition had not been fulfilled. Suit was brought against Evans in the Superior Court, and a decision rendered against him. Appeal was made to the General Term, where the case was argued yesterday. J. K. Herbert appeared for the Pavement Company, and B. E. Valentine for Evans.

In the case of Juhn Warren agt Sheridan Company stopped work in this city a number of articles

In the case of John Warren agt. Sheridan Shook, as Collector of Internal Revenue, heretofore fully reported in The Tribune, action was brought to recover about $7,000 paid under protest as a tax on sales of stock made on his own account when he was doing business as a banker and broker, he claiming that bankers could only be taxed on sales of stock made on commission. The question was argued in the United States Circuit Court, before Jadge Woodruff, who reserved his decision till yesterday, when he gave one in favor of the defendant, or, in other words, he decided that a person doing business as a banker and broker was subject to a tax on all sales of stock made by him. This is a test case governing 28 others, and it really involves about $220,000. Since the actions were brought, taxes on sales of stock either by, bankers or brokers have been bosished. B. K. Phoips for Warren, and United States District-Attorney Bliss for the Collector. reported in THE TRIBUNE, action was brought-to recover
